Profile

I'm a highly motivated, hardworking, energetic, and ambitious individual who has developed a mature and responsible approach to any task. I'm also committed to helping and developing skills for intellectually disabled children and adults. The patience and compassion that I have is essential for providing personal support to both the little learners and adults. Organization skills that include managing of schedules and educational plans combined with problem solving skill which are vital as I encounter unexpected challenges.

I'm flexible in handling changes (especially now that it's vital in the special education world). Active listening skills with clear and concise written and verbal communication. I value team work as much as I also have ability to work independently.

Professional Experience

May 2024 – present

Nairobi, Kenya

Kitengela International School, Special Needs Teacher

I specialize in providing individualized support and instruction to students with diverse learning needs. My role involves creating and implementing tailored educational plans, utilizing evidence-based strategies to foster an inclusive and supportive classroom environment. I collaborate closely with parents, therapists, and other educators to ensure each student's holistic development and academic success. My commitment is to empower students to achieve their full potential through patience, understanding, and innovative teaching methods

January 2024 – April 2024

Nairobi, Kenya

Raising Stars School, Special Needs Teacher

I served as a special needs teacher dedicated to supporting students with a variety of learning challenges. My responsibilities included developing and implementing individualized education plans (IEPs) tailored to each student's unique needs. I employed a range of teaching strategies and adaptive technologies to facilitate effective learning. Additionally, I worked collaboratively with multidisciplinary teams, including parents, therapists, and fellow educators, to ensure comprehensive support for each student. My role focused on fostering a nurturing and inclusive learning environment, promoting academic growth, and enhancing social and life skills development.
